

The National Remodeling Foundation
A Foundation of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry

www.nationalremodelingfoundation.org

Contact: Joan Stephens, CR
208-345-7154 ext. 516

For Immediate Release

National Remodeling Foundation Awards Scholarships to Future
Industry Leaders of Outstanding Potential

Des Plaines, Ill (April 25, 2007)—The National Remodeling Foundation recently recognized eight future remodeling industry leaders with scholarships for the 2007-2008 academic year. The scholarships are given annually to select students who are pursuing degrees and certifications in areas related to remodeling construction.

The winners for the 2007-08 year include are:

- Tyler Cleaveland, South Haven, Minnesota
- Kevin Hansen, Syracuse, Utah
- Maria Kovach, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin
- Lewis McCord Memmott, Layton, Utah
- Adam Stevens, Layton, Utah
- Wayne Strang, Virginia, Illinois
- Annette Streiff, Shoreview, Minnesota
- Matthew Verster, Chicago, Illinois

“The National Remodeling Foundation was established to encourage a competent and educated team of individuals to enter the remodeling industry,” said Joan Stephens, CR of Stronghold Remodeling, president of the National Remodeling Foundation. “The National Remodeling Foundation is excited to support these great students in their study of remodeling. We invite them to join our professional remodeling industry associations and to take advantage of the many networking opportunities as well.”

The scholarships are awarded to students seeking to improve their professionalism and skills in business related to the remodeling industry. Scholarships are awarded for certification programs, and/or related university or college training.

For more scholarship information, contact info@nationalremodelingfoundation.org and see our web page at www.nationalremodelingfoundation.org.

###